Comfortable and solid - this is how you can describe the Grom shoes in two words. The footwear was created specifically for the needs of uniformed services. The presented model can cope with all, even the most unfavorable conditions. Military boots are a product with a classic shape in a black, universal color. Their outer material is a high-quality grain leather resistant to mechanical damage. The inside of the footwear is filled with a technological fabric lining with a membrane. The presented safety shoes will prove themselves on any terrain, regardless of its ground.
